Dear Toni:

On July 28 I sent you 8 color slides of my geese taking bread right out of my mouth. I'd appreciate it if you would return them. I have promised to show them on the 14th or 15th to someone who is interested.

Enclosed is a dollar for postage. Please, if you can without taking too much time, insure them for $200.00, which costs 40 cents.

Hope you are well.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
